Bray said that, among the factors favoring the U of I, were that both schools had programs in government and public affairs and that U of I administrators had helped set up Sangamon.

Brown had contended Sangamon would be a good match with the SIU system because SIU already has a medical school in Springfield and science programs could be coordinated. In addition, the legal studars offered by Sangamon would dovetail with the SIU Law School, he argued.

Brown conceded Wednesday that Sangamon is now unlikely to become part of SIU: "It's too bad. We thought we could have made a definite contribution to higher education in Springfield and that area," he said.

Sangamon State is currently part of the Board of Regents system, which would be abolished and the same of the system of the same of the system of the same of the sa

Odds Are You'll Find This Offer Of Great Interest.

Introducing Our New 7 &12 Month

"ODDS OR EVEN" CD

Odds are you just might be more than a little disappointed with the rates most banks have been paying on certificates of deposit. It seems some banks want you to tie up more of your money for a longer period of time, only to pay you less interest on your CD. There must be a better way. Fortunately, there is.

With First Bank's new "Odds or Even" CD, you can earn the same great rate for either 7 or 12 months. You'll notice our rate is a full percentage point higher than what some banks have been paying. If you want to lock in, go ahead and choose the 12 month CD. If you're looking for a short term investment, choose the 7 month CD. You decide! Whichever term you choose, your deposit is FDIC-insured up to $100,000.

Come in today and ask a First Bank representative about the "Odds or Even" CD. Odds are you're gonna like it!

St. Clair County's consummate police officer is shooting for a higher post after 33 years in law enforcement.

Terry Delaney of Belleville is aiming for appointment to the post of U.S. marshal for the 41 southernmost Illinois counties. He has submitted a resume and reference letters to Sen. Paul Simon.

Simon.
"I was approached the day after the election by the Demo-cratic Party of St. Clair County and asked about the position and I said I would be interested," he said.

Delaney, who served with the Illinois State Police for 28 years, said he is ready for the chal-lenge of the post and has a wide variety of experience to fit the bill.

lenge of the post and has a wive variety of experience to fit the bill.

Although he has been a handson police officer since he first joined the Washington Park Delice Oppartment at age 21, been sould spend all his time as U.S. marshal behind a desk. "I don't know if I would be a working marshal, but I'm sure you can jump in an assist on special things," he said. Granite City's Kami Kessel takes aim at the basket.

Granite City cut the advantage from the 139 with a three-point shot from Kami Kessel with two minutes to play. The Lady Warriors were forced to foul Javetta Spencer in an effort to recover the ball and she hit on the front end of the one-in-one, stretching the East St. Louis lead to three points

ornatic City forward Stephanie Kult cut the margin to one point with a basket on the offensive rebound and the Lady Warriors were able to regain the ball for a final desperation shot, but they fell short and lost their share of the conference lead as they fell to 7-2 in the SWC.

Failing grades can be turned around

Parents who have children that are receiving less than glowing reports from school still have enough time left in the school year to turn the siluation around. But it won't be easy. Helping your child improve his school work will require an investment of energy, attention and time.

"The first thing parents should do is meet with their child's teacher. Many parents may put off should be so in the control of the first thing parents may put off should be sho
